THE TERRITORY

An appellation covering the whole region, where the environments show a considerable variety of morphological elements that create a very articulated landscape in which the hilly reliefs fade into the plain.

Here the cultivation of the vine has been undisputed protagonist since ancient times yielding products with a strong typicality.

TASTE

Bright pale yellow with greenish tinges, medium bodied wine with a good freshness and elegant notes of blossomed white flowers and chamomile.

PAIRING

Recommended with first courses with vegetable sauces, backed white meats and light dishes in general.
